Memorial Urns

Hold your loved ones close

About Memorial Urns

Cremation memorial urns provide meaningful ways of honouring a loved one. Choosing an option that's right for you and your family is a personal choice that we can help guide you through.

Choosing the right option for you

When it comes to honouring your loved one, you can select from a range of classic, designer, eco-friendly or wooden memorial urns.

How you wish to remember your loved one is deeply personal. If you wish to divide your loved one's ashes amongst family and friends, you can. You can also scatter some of your loved ones ashes in a meaningful place and keep some close to you at home in a memorial urn. There are no rules.

Most large urns in this brochure are suitable to hold the ashes of an average sized adult.

Placing your loved one's ashes in an urn

At Southern Metropolitan Cemeteries Trust, we care for you and your loved one, in life and death. As part of a memorial urn purchase, we will place your loved one's ashes into an urn at no additional cost.
